After this brief, you will have a basic overview of the capabilities of the EDFR Module within the UD/MIPS system, and the knowledge to:

- Properly requesting DFR
- Request and download cyclic data from the mainframe into the EDFR Module
- Properly access the EDFR Module.
- EDFR load process
- Properly working EDFR
- Generate notes that can be applied to an individual or to multiple transactions within the EDFR.

EDFR Storage

A EDFR cycle may be archived to a location and storage medium of the user's choice. The archived EDFR will exist in a compressed state until the user recovers the cycle or deletes it.

Note: that recovered EDFRs are noneditable thereby integrity is maintained throughout the filing requirement period. Recovered EDFRs will appear in summary lists with a Cycle Status of "Closed".

EDFR

The Oracle Load Ready File Format (OLRFF) file, created by the Reporting Unit Code (RUC) Qualified Download process, will be used to reconcile the EDFR information into the user's database.

The EDFR has the same four parts as a DFR:

Part I: Diary Satatisics Report (DSR)
Part II: Rejected Transactions
Part III: Advisory/PUREX data.
Part IV: Advisory Transactions
